
Fig. S1 The random forest model results reveal the importance of bacterial abundance, Shannon-Wiener index and dissolved organic matter on the CO₂ emission rate (RR), β -glucosidase activity (BG) and phosphatase activity (PhoS) constructed only using the diluted soils. All the data were log transformed before the calculation.

